

Peru, Mochica culture, 100-700 AD

Mohica vessel

Crabs and stylized birds are painted on the belly flattened.
It is connected to a standing figure carved in the round, by the stirrup handle surmounted by a cylindrical mouth.
The man holds a bowl in front of his smiling mouth.
Terracotta painted in cream, orange and brown.
Height: 19.4 cm.
Égrenures lip.