

Egypt, 3rd Intermediate Period, Dynasty XXI, 988-955 B.C.

Ushabti in the name of the queen Iset-em-Khebit

Mummified, he wears a tripartite wig black, arms crossed over his chest and holding hoes, and he wears a grain cart in the back; On the front, 5 horizontal lines of hieroglyphs.

This is the ushabti of the second wife of Pinedjem I and mother of Psusennes III.

Turquoise blue faience painted black décor.

H: 15.6 cm.

Literature:

Parallel: Glenn James, shabtis, a private view, 2002, Paris, p. 59, No. 29.